

Reflections

As you think back over the process of your project what were some of the successes your experience

What were some of the things you think could have been done better?

What key lessons have you learned or grown personally from your civic engagement project/activities?
